11

Azithromycin 250mg, 500mg Capsules and 200mg/5mL Suspension

Part A

Prescriber Criteria: Consultant Infectious Diseases Physician
Consultant Immunologist
Consultant Paediatrician
Consultant Respiratory Physician
Mater Dei Hospital Antibiotic Team Consultant

Outpatient and Inpatient use:

1. Cystic Fibrosis
2. Primary Immunodeficiency Disorders
3. Secondary Immunodeficiency Disorders

1. Cystic Fibrosis

Reserved for patients who are suffering from chronic Pseudomonas aeruginosa lung infection

2. Primary Immunodeficiency Disorders and Secondary Immunodeficiency Disorders

Reserved for patients suffering from immunodeficiency in the absence of T-cell dysfunction, or hypogammaglobulinaemia or other immunoglobulin deficiencies.

Duration of Approval: 1 year

Inpatient use:

1. Cat Scratch Disease
2. Chlamydia trachomatis oculogenital infections
3. Prophylaxis for chlamydial infections in survivors of sexual abuse
4. Treatment or post-exposure prophylaxis of pertussis in infants <1 month of age
5. Second line treatment of Cryptosporidiosis in the immunocompromised
6. Other indications require discussion with a member of the Mater Dei Hospital Antibiotic Team

Part B

Prescriber Criteria: GU Clinic Consultant

Genitourinary Clinic:

1. Chlamydia trachomatis
2. Muco-purulent cervicitis
3. Mycoplasma genitalium
4. Non-Specific Urethritis