132

Misoprostol 200mcg Tablets

Part A

Prescriber Criteria: Consultant Obstetrics and Gynaecology

Inpatient use:
In Obstetrics & Gynaecology (off-license indication) for:

1. Medical management of
    - anembryonic gestation
    - embryonic or foetal death in the first-trimester (missed miscarriage)
    - incomplete spontaneous first-trimester miscarriage
2. Intrauterine death if not responding to prostaglandins
3. Post-partum haemorrhage
4. Cervical priming prior to surgery
5. Induction of labour.

The off-licence form must be filled in and signed by the Consultant Obstetrics and Gynaecology requesting misoprostol.

Part B

Prescriber Criteria: Consultant Cardiothoracic Surgeon
Consultant Cardiologist

Outpatient and Inpatient use:

1. Coronary Artery Disease

Post cardiac interventions where antiplatelet therapy is contraindicated. Patients who have undergone cardiac interventions and who must have antiplatelet therapy in spite of traditional gastrointestinal contraindications

Duration of approval:
1 year