Botulinum Toxin Type A

Prescriber Criteria: Consultant Neurologist
Consultant Ophthalmologist
Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon
Consultant Paediatrician
Consultant Rehabilitation Medicine
Consultant Urologist

Inpatient use:

1. Hemifacial spasm
2. Focal Dystonia
3. Bladder dysfunction giving rise to recurrent incontinence**
4. Stroke
5. Cerebral palsy
6. Spinal cord pathology
7. Traumatic brain injuries

*As a last treatment option when no adequate response is attained with the standard anti-cholinergic drugs, and prior to resorting to major surgery.

Patient consent form:
Required (Botulinum Toxin Type A contains a blood derivative).